

BIO 104: Principles of Biology II

This course is an introduction to the basic ecological and evolutionary relationships of plants and animals and a survey of plant and animal diversity including classification, morphology, physiology, and reproduction. A 180-minute laboratory is required.

Credits: 4

Prerequisites:

BIO 103.

Program: Biology