

DDT 125: Surface Development

This course covers surface intersections and developments. Emphasis is placed on the basic types of intersections using simple geometric forms. Upon completion, students should be able to draw common types of surface intersection and handle them simply as applications of the concepts learned in this class.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

DDT 111

Program: Drafting and Design Technology