

DDT 132: Architectural Drafting

This course includes basic terminology, concepts and principles of architectural design. Topics include design consideration, lettering, terminology, site plans, and construction drawings. Upon completion, students should be able to draw, dimension, and specify basic residential architectural construction drawings to specification.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

DDT 111

DDT 124

Program: Drafting and Design Technology