

ELT 110: Wiring Methods

This course is a study of various tasks, wiring methods, materials, and associated NEC requirements that students will be required to work with in residential and commercial wiring courses.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

Permission of instructor.

Program: Electrical Technology