

Application

The Code of Student Conduct applies to individual students as well as formal and informal groups thereof and is applicable to the behavior of students and organizations on and off the College campus which is determined to be incompatible with the educational environment and mission of the College.