

Core Values

With the completion agenda and emphases on the learning-centered college as our ultimate priorities, Wallace Community College Selma is guided by the following core values:

- Affordable and accessible educational opportunities to meet the needs of our diverse service area;
- Instructional excellence, faculty and staff competency, and continuous training in all academic and technical programs;
- Dedication to increasing skills and competencies that allow for upward mobility and increased opportunities in the employment market;
- Partnership with other organizations and institutions that promote community outreach and respond to needs of the service area;
- Principles of personal ethics, integrity, academic honesty and civic responsibility;
- Economic and workforce development that supports growth in the communities that the college serves;
- Technology as a critical element in achieving the strategic and annual goals of the College;
- Accountability and assessment that result in continuous program improvement; and
- Equal opportunity for employees, students, and representatives of the community at large regardless of age, color, sex, disability, national origin, race, religion or veteran status.
