

State, Community, and Other Financial Aid Programs

A variety of other Financial Aid is provided by state agencies, local community sources such as professional and civic groups, private foundations, and other sources. The types of aid, amounts, qualifications, and application procedures vary widely. The best source of information on these types of scholarships is usually high school counselors. The Office of Financial Aid highly encourages you and/or your parent(s) to visit our website at www.wccs.edu for the most up-to-date information on scholarships.