

WDT 258: Certification Lab (Elective)

This course is designed to provide the student with the skills needed to perform welds using the prescribed welding process. Emphasis is placed on welding test joints in accordance with the prescribed welding code. Upon completion, students should be able to pass an industry standard welding test in accordance with D1.1 code requirements.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

As required by instructor.

Program: Welding Technology